Class Description: In this course your child will the basics of Contemporary, Lyrical, and Modern dance. Contemporary, lyrical, and modern dance classes are all styles that combine classical ballet with other dance techniques and focus on expression and storytelling:

- Modern: a more expressive style that incorporates current dance steps and is considered the foundation for contemporary and lyrical dance.
- Lyrical: a style that focuses on the flow of movement to express emotion through the lyrics of a song. Lyrical dance incorporates ballet and jazz techniques and is often performed to music with lyrics.
- Contemporary: a style that focuses on big movements and pushing the boundaries of dance. Contemporary dance blends ballet, jazz, modern, and lyrical techniques and is often performed barefoot.

Parents are welcome to observe the first class, but we do ask that you wait in the lobby for the remainder of the semester. Your child is REQUIRED to always have their hair away from their face and please bring your own water. There will be a performance at the end of the semester, and I ask that you confirm you participation by Feb. 12th.
