Class Description:

Although not the easiest, music theory is one of the most in depth and useful subjects one can learn in the world of music. In Music Theory/Composition I, we will start at the very basics and work our way up through a variety of subjects including time signatures, chords, aural training, note values, structure, and much, much more! We will also do a variety of projects using these topics and begin to look at composition.

First Class is open with no obligation to anyone who wishes to get a feel for the class. As always, feel free to text/call/email with any questions, comments, or concerns.

Nonrefundable Materials Fee Due at Registration
