Dance Performance: TBD

Class Description: In this course your child will learn the basic of musical theater and jazz dance.

- Jazz: a fun/high-energy form of dance that develops technique, rhythm, style. Jazz trains strength and flexibility
- Musical theater (dance): focuses on stage presents, and the ability to tell a story or convey an emotion through movement without speaking. We will be learning choreography from famous's works through the years

Parents are welcome to observe the first class, but we do ask that you wait in the lobby for the remainder of the semester. Your child is REQUIRED to always have their hair away from their face and please bring your own water. There will be a performance at the end of the semester, and I ask that you confirm your participation by Feb. 12th.
